TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Declared Intention.—Hjalmar Eide, a native of Norway, filed his formal declaration of intention to become a citizen of America, as soon as the law and time permits.

Paul Rader Here.—Mr. Rader is something new to Taunton. The largest crowd ever seen in the opera house greeted him Sunday afternoon to hear his lecture on "Young Tellers' Taunton Mass. Times." Rader lectures like he formally played football. He wins for his side. East Boston Advocate.

Before you purchase that new Easter bonnet, make it a point to call and inspect the excellent line of hats now on display at Mrs. Ingleton's Millinery Store. Welch Block, opposite the Budget office on Commercial street.

At the Star.—Manager Al Hague has made things very pleasant for the Astoria public at the cozy little Star during the past week, with a very strong and clean bill, and has one of the same sort for next week. The Star is one of the institutions of the city and is entitled to steady patronage.

Shifting Titles.—There were two transfers of realty filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday, to wit: J. C. Reed and wife to Henrietta A. Prael warranty, consideration $300, conveying the south ten feet of the north half of lots 5 and 6 of block 73, McClure's Astoria. H. A. Wilson and wife to Jens K. Petersen, warranty, consideration $175, conveying lot 1, block 61, Upper Astoria.

Hotel Irving.—European plan. The only steam-heated hotel in Astoria; large and airy rooms; prices from 50 cents to $1.50; well prepared and daintily served meals at 25 cents. Special rates per week or month for room and board to permanent guests. Our bus meets all trains and steamboats.

Over Sixty Names.—The Republican primary ticket will be a voluminous affair, according to a communication received yesterday by County Clerk Clinton, from Secretary of State F. I. Dunbar, who shows that there will be forty state and district officers on the ticket and these, plus the nineteen state and district officers on the ticket the justices of peace, constables and committeemen from the various precincts, will make a blanket affairs of the nominating ballot. When the people get through with it there will not be so many names left to go on the electoral ticket.

GOOD GOODS.
 118-122 Twelfth St. Astoria, Ore.

Deals in Chittum.—A. J. Colin, one of the heaviest dealers in the valuable product of the coast counties, Chittum bark, is in the city from Tillamook. He has just concluded a big transfer of the bark to the Rosenbergs of San Francisco and reports the market glutted and prices very low, there being over sixty tons of the medicinal agency now held in stock by the gatherers between here and the Tillamook country.

To Salem For Treatment.—John Smith, the unfortunate young man from Jewett, who has lost his mind, was examined by Judge Tremblay yesterday and declared insane. The authorities at Salem were promptly notified and two agents from the asylum for insane arrived here last night and will take young Smith to that institution on this morning's train.

Nine More Days.—There are nine more days for the voter to get in line for the primary election. At the close of business the registration books yesterday showed the following contributions: Astoria No. 1, 94; Astoria No. 2, 119; No. 3, 133; No. 4, 150; No. 5, 150; No. 6, 98; No. 7, 92; or a total for the city of 833. And for the county precincts as follows: Clifton No. 1, 56; Clifton No. 2, 26; Chadwell, 26; Clatsop, 14; Elsie, 15; John Day, No. 1, 12; John Day No. 2, 12; Jewell, 14; Knappa, 44; Mi-hawaka, 16; Melville, 12; New Astoria, 26; Olney, 35; Push, 11; Seaside, 142; Svendsen, 12; Vesper, 15; Westport, 19; Warrenton, 27; Walluski, 20; and Young's River, 31; or a total of 586 for the county precincts. Thus making a grand total of 1419 for the county to date.

Emigrants Arriving.—Last night's Portland Astoria express on the A. & C. was delayed at Goble for about twenty minutes awaiting the arrival of the Northern Pacific train which bore a carload of emigrants for the realms of Clatsop. There were forty-four people in the car and they will probably find friends or relatives to greet them here this morning. There were twelve or fifteen arrived the night before, and thus it seems as old Clatsop becoming the objective point for a new tide of immigration. Well, there is plenty to come here for, and if they will but work out their own salvation, they will not be hampered in the task. Those who arrived last night look to be of the farmer's class, rather than of a seafaring sort, and there is plenty of room here for both.

The New Parker.—It is said there is to be some radical and advantageous changes wrought in the old Parker House of this city, Mr. H. B. Parker, the owner, having determined to remodel the whole structure upon very broad lines, suggested to him in his recent protracted tour through California. The south line of the house will be taken off of Astor street five feet and the big house, from roof to foundation stone, is to be overhauled and made new, comfortable and up-to-date. It is understood that the management of the hostelry will pass into other hands than that of the well known Boniface, Theodore Broemser, who will shortly retire to less public lines of business, and that Captain Parker, son of the Octogenarian owner, will preside at the desk. All improvements of this sort are welcome in Astoria and it is hoped nothing will be left undone to put the house on the basis warranted by the size of the city and the traffic entering here.

Born.—Yesterday morning a son was born to the wife of Martin Knutsen. All are reported to be doing well.

Licenses Issued.—Fish Warden Van Dusen has thus far issued 190 gill net licenses and 68 set net licenses to fishermen in the Columbia river district.

Buried Yesterday.—The funeral of Mrs. Ida A. Johnson, the wife of C. G. Johnson who died a few days ago at the St. Mary's hospital, occurred yesterday afternoon at Knappa.

Files Remonstrance.—A. E. Salte yesterday filed a remonstrance with the city auditor protesting against the assessment of his property for the construction of the Eighteenth-street sewer.

Left This Morning.—Dr. C. W. Barr left this morning for a trip to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Barr has some property in that part of the state and makes this trip in connection with his interests.

C. H. Cooper's announce that their great unparalleled sale, which has been such a wonderful success, will be brought to a close tonight, and those who desire to take the advantage to be had there must call before closing time tonight.

Eloquent Speaker.—The crowd cheered Rader greatly before his lecture, that was because he formerly lived here, but the cheers during his lecture and the prolonged applause proved that Mr. Rader could carry his audience with him, by his clear thought and oratory. Mr. Rader knows how to tell a story which illustrates his point. Morning Chiefton Pueblo, Colo.
 Big and Astoria

Received Encore.—Public speakers are not generally encored. However, at the convention held this afternoon Mr. Rader proved to be the exception to the rule. He filled the fifteen minutes allotted to him, and when the time was up left the platform. The audience would have their way and he returned for five minutes more. St. Paul, Minn., Pioneer Press.

Dies Yesterday.—Rosa Suomela, the wife of Sakri Suomela, died yesterday morning at her home in this city of consumption at the age of 27 years. The deceased was a native of Finland. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 1:30 from the A. O. U. W. hall. The interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Captures Nets.—Deputy Fish Commissioner L. C. Burton took possession of three set nets, which were found tied to the wharf of the Megler cannery at Brookfield. The property is comparatively new, and whoever the owner is he will suffer considerable loss.

Returns From California.—W. H. Copeland of this city returned this week from California where he has been recuperating his health at the mineral springs. He states that the change has benefited his rheumatism very much, and returns greatly invigorated. Mr. Copeland says that during the several weeks which he spent in the South the weather was very bad, and for his part he is satisfied with Astoria.

Commits Suicide.—Because her husband failed to support her and her children, and becoming despondent, Mrs. Emma Erick Thursday committed suicide by laying her head on the rail of the Olsen Logging road at Deep River in front of an oncoming engine, which before it could be stopped ran over the unfortunate woman, crushing her head and killing her instantly. The deceased was 25 years of age and leaves a husband and three young children. The funeral will occur at Deep River today.

Supreme Commander Coming.—D. P. Markey of Port Huron, Mich., the Supreme Commander of the Knights of the Maccabees of the World will pay the local order an official visit next Monday evening, and the members are busy arranging a program for the occasion. Mr. Markey is recognized as one of the best fraternal speakers in the United States and the local Tent feels highly honored at having him pay them a visit. They have invited all the surrounding Tents to be present at the meeting.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore left out for Tillamook City yesterday morning.

The steamer Redondo is due to arrive here from San Francisco this morning.

The schooner Virginia arrived in port yesterday afternoon and went to an anchorage in the upper city channel.

The steamer F. A. Kilburn is due to arrive here from San Francisco, this morning.

The steamship Columbia docked at the O. R. & N. piers here yesterday morning. She brought up a good list of people and a small consignment of freight for this port and left up for the metropolis in a short time. She will return down on Monday morning early.

The steamship Roanoke arrived down from Portland at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, in charge of Captain Pope of the river pilots' association. She had a good manifest of California freight and left out on the afternoon flood, for San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The steamer Alliance arrived in from Eureka and Coos Bay points at noon yesterday, with a good bunch of people and freight, and after hour's stay at the Callender pier left up for the metropolis.

The American ship St. Nicholas was shifted from the Elmore bunkers to the Kinney Cannery dock yesterday morning. She will load there for the far north and will probably get away by the 10th of the coming month, for her Alaska destination.

Beginning tomorrow, April 1st, the officers of the Kamm line steamers will don the new and handsome uniform ordained for the service. The Lurline left up last night on her schedule for Portland, with the following people on her register: Dr. W. C. Barr, W. W. McRivine, D. B. Rosenberg and T. D. Dinghan.

The three masted schooner John A., from San Francisco, sailed in over the Columbia bar yesterday, and sailed up to the Clatsop Mill docks where she will load lumber for her outward cargo. Her master always sails her into this port. She has not been here for some time.

The French bark Francoise d'Ambroise from San Francisco, under command of Captain Reusser, one of the youngest masters to enter this port in years, came in over the bar yesterday morning, and is now awaiting towage to Portland. She is of 1630 tons and a fine vessel.

Pilot Commissioner now has the State pilot schooner San Jose in prime readiness for duty off the bar, so if anything occurs whereby the Pulitzer has need of harborage, the San Jose can take her place at a moment's notice.

THE NIMBLE COIN.

The nimble coin of the country never does so good a thing as when it supplies a man with a well-cooked and healthful meal of the sort he is hungry for. In this instance it becomes a blessing, and no pocketbook is the poorer for the expenditure; this is why everyone you see coming out of the Palace Restaurant carries such a grateful and satisfied expression of countenance. Just watch for a day or so, and the first thing you know you'll be a steady customer there. It is one of the certainties of Astoria life.

A Scientific Wonder.

The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mulford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of a distressing case of Piles. It heals the worst Burns, Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Cuts, Wounds, Chilblains and Salt Rheum. Only 25c at Chas. Rogers drug store.
